CALL/ACBD's Newsletter

February 2018

From the Executive Board

CALL/ACBD Privacy Policy

The CALL/ACBD Executive Board has developed a privacy policy that is now located in the footer of our website. This privacy policy affirms our commitment to maintaining high standards of confidentiality, to provide information on CALL/ACBD's practices concerning the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information and to comply with the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) and other applicable statutes. Should you have any questions about this policy, please reach out to office@callacbd.ca.

Canadian Law Library Review* is now open-access!

To make it more accessible to its readers, the Canadian Law Library Review will become an open-access publication as of January 2018. Members will not be affected by the change—you will still receive an e-blast with a link to the PDF and ISSUU page when a new issue is published. You will not, however, be asked to sign in as a member of CALL/ACBD in order to view the PDF.

We are excited by this change to CLLR, as it puts into practice a core value of librarianship: access to information. With our new model, CLLR can be shared with anyone interested in the work we do as law librarians. Spread the word!

Renew your CALL/ACBD membership today: Grace period ends February 28

To renew or update your membership, log in to your profile here with your email and password and follow the instructions there. Don't know your password? Reset it here. ## Membership Development Committee

Mentorship Program

Another successful year is coming to a close for CALL's Mentorship Program. We will begin accepting applications in March for the 2018-2019 mentorship in-take. Whether you're a student, new professional, or long time librarian, participating in mentorship is a rewarding experience and a great way to build your network. Take a look at our mentorship page for an overview of the program and keep your eyes open for the intake announcement in early March.

Each month an email is sent to mentor/mentee with a conversation starter to assist in helping to keep the connection. I'll share the January email on using PAUSE in our conversations: "1 Tool That Will Make Your Conversations Flow Better" by Brenda Barbosa at Inc.com. PAUSE is a useful tool when the mind is under stress. An exercise you can try is to share your best practices for effective conversations, whether that's the reference interview with a client; the all stressful job interview; performance review meeting with your boss; or responding to our beloved family and friends. Keep the conversations going!

Member Profile

Check out the last blog post Five Questions With... Nathalie Bélanger, Chief of the Université de Montréal's Law Library. It's a wonderful inspiring post on her journey from lawyer, to notary, to law librarian, to Chief Librarian in public and academic libraries.

Committee to Promote Research

The Committee to Promote Research and CALL/ACBD invite members to apply for the CALL/ACBD Research Grant. The application deadline is March 15, 2018.

The CALL/ACBD Research Grant was established in 1996 to provide members with financial assistance to carry out research in areas of interest to members and to the association. Please refer to our Committee site for a copy of the application form and to view our collection of past research projects. Click here to view research grant application tips.

The Committee is excited to receive proposals and we encourage members to apply or to contact us to discuss a project you are interested in. Members who previously applied but were not awarded funding are welcome to reapply.

Co-Chairs, CALL/ACBD Committee to Promote Research: Susan Barker (susan.barker@utoronto.ca), Elizabeth Bruton (ebarton@uwo.ca).

Private Law Libraries SIG

As noted at the 2017 CALL Conference, the PLL SIG is looking for a co-chair as part of succession planning, and will need an incoming chair as of the 2018 CALL Conference! If you are interested in being involved, or know someone who would be a great in the role and might be willing to take it on, please contact Victoria at Victoria.Baranow@nortonrosefulbright.com.

Website Editorial Board

One of the Website Editorial Board's (WEB) priorities is to encourage the publishing of new content on the CALL website. Committees and special interest groups (SIGs) are encouraged to make their content publicly available on the website. Members, committees, and SIGs are encouraged to contribute content to the CALL blog and social media channels: Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn. This could include articles, resources, announcements, or projects. Please contact Alan Kilpatrick (alan.kilpatrick@lawsociety.sk.ca) or Michel-Adrien Sheppard (michel-adrien.sheppard@scc-csc.ca) if you would like to contribute content.

The WEB would like to highlight some of the exciting content available on the CALL website. For example, did you know that the Vendor Liaison Committee (VLC) has produced a wealth of best practice documents, help guides, and position statements? This includes guidelines for resolving vendor issues, action plans, sample letters, tools, and cost containment strategies. We encourage you to check these resources out!
